

September 2024: Fortunately, this month's walk was one of the few good days weather-wise in September and we proceeded without any downpours. Heading off from the Blue Ball pub in Asheridge, near Chesham, our walk took us around and about Hawridge and Cholesbury, some lovely views which of course meant a few hills, some fairly steep, followed by a really good lunch at the pub.

