

June, 2024 – Ley Hill, Chesham

In a sharp contrast to the rather wet and soggy weather of May's walk, June's walkers set off on a day forecast to be verging on excessively hot, so we made sure we were armed with plenty of water.

The walk took us from The Crown in Ley Hill down towards Latimer where the path above Latimer House then opened out onto glorious views over the Chess valley.

We continued along the familiar route of the Chess Valley Walk before heading through fields back up to Ley Hill where we enjoyed a refreshing drink and lunch sitting outside on the Green in the welcome shade of trees.
