

May 2023 – The Red Lion Pub, Penn, led by Irene

Eighteen of us set forth from The Red Lion pub in Penn on part of the 'Penn Jubilee Wood' walk, the entirety of which is 10 miles so unsurprisingly we opted for the shorter route; this took us through the beautiful land surrounding Penn House estate in the Chiltern hills with its beech woods (with remnants of the bluebells) and wild rhododendrons.

The weather was perfect for a walk in the country with lovely views, fields edged by hawthorn in full bloom and carpeted with bright buttercups and cowslips. Lunch in the friendly Red Lion at the end was very good. Definitely worth a return visit, next time to do the loop we omitted today.
