

November 2024.

We met at the Dumb Bell pub located between Maple Cross and Chalfont St Peter. The sun was shining with a light breeze - perfect conditions for our walk. We set off along Shire Lane towards Nathan's Farm and on towards Heronsgate via "No Dragon Wood".

Dappled shade in Philipshill wood led us eventually to the grounds of Newland Park. A steady walk across open fields took us to Horn Hill and back to the pub. After a 6.5 mile walk we settled down for our well earned refreshments and lunch.
