

November 2023 The King Charles Ashley Green

A lovely turn out for our November walk as 18 of us set off from Ashley Green, a little village a few miles out of Chesham. Our walk took us across fields, through a few farms, into the pretty and unusually named Pancake Woods. We then meandered through Hockeridge Woods and along Hockeridge Bottom before heading uphill through the woods to Harriotts End farm before descending back down the valley to return to our starting point. A lovely walk lit by glorious autumnal colours culminating in a very good lunch at The King Charles (formerly the Pig in the Pantry).
