

May 2022

18 members of the Wine Appreciation Group (WAGs) met for their first meeting on Tuesday 3rd May 2022 where we sampled 6 bottles of Italian wine (3 white, 3 red).

After we had sampled the three whites a vote was taken and the Nero Oro Grillo was clearly the favourite. What was surprising was that it was the cheapest of the three and prices were not revealed until the end.

Moving on to the reds, the winner (by less of a majority) was Valpolicella Ripasso which happened to be the most expensive!

We all really enjoyed ourselves and are looking forward to next month's meeting where we will be sampling another six totally different wines.
