

September 2022

A smaller than usual turnout with just 9 of us in attendance. However, it was a really enjoyable evening and we welcomed a new member in respect of Mary Southey.

Rosey and Diane started with three white wines (Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, Viognier), all totally different from each other and the first time any of us had drunk a Canadian wine in the UK. When we voted at the end, each wine received three nominations, the first time we have had a three-way draw! The prices were £6.49, £7.99 and £8.99, all from Aldi.

On to the reds (Merlot, Priorat, Rasteau); this time there was a clear favourite with the Rasteau taking the winner's place. The wines were at the top end by ABV (13.5%, 14% and 14.5%) and each had a distinctive taste. The prices were £5.79, £9.99, £9.99, again all from Aldi.
